

At Bundaberg North State High School we welcome you to volunteer in our school

We welcome parents, extended family and interested members of the community to come into the school on a regular basis as volunteers. Please complete the enclosed Volunteer Brochure Return Slip and return to Bundaberg North State High School.

To be a volunteer in a school, you must be a parent or have a "Blue Card". You will need to complete an application for the "Working with Children Check". The card is free of charge for volunteers and lasts for three years.

We are always looking for more enthusiastic helpers. In this brochure, we have listed a few of the comments by our current volunteers, in a hope that you will see how easy it is to help us as well as meet our staff and other parents.

Volunteers...

Janice Dixon

The tuckshop at Bundaberg North High is a great place to Volunteer. This is my 14th year volunteering here. The staff are friendly the students are polite. I enjoy getting to know them and I know they are appreciative of my help. Jacky is welcoming and supportive we have great fun. Volunteering here has been great. Once you start it is hard to leave.

Louise Dray

I first started volunteering at North State High eight years ago when my child attended this school. I like getting to know the students as they are always ready for a chat. Since volunteering in the canteen I have learned kitchen skills, cookery and customer service. Being a volunteer has built my confidence and keeps me busy.

If you would like to assist the school, either in the Canteen, Reading Groups or with the Volunteer Tutor Program please fill out this form and contact me.

Note: It is not necessary to have skills or experience in these subjects. We need willing people to listen to the teacher's directions to the students and assist the students to follow through on their work. Tutors often work with just a few students who need more help than others.
